

October Library Programs

L2D Learn to Drive

Friday, October 5, 9:30am - 4pm

They might be driving your car soon! Want to make sure they know the rules of the road? Send them to the Library for a day long study session that will help them pass the Class 7 Learner's Exam. Make sure you register early to avoid disappointment, spaces are limited. An hour long break is provided for lunch, eat out or bring a bag lunch. You must be near your 14th birthday or older to register for this class.

Creative Writers Collective

Tuesday, October 23, 7pm

Discover or develop your talent, whatever your interest: short stories, poetry, newsletters, fiction, non-fiction, plays, essays, novels, newspaper reporting or any other form of writing. Everyone welcome, especially new writers who are looking for prompts or encouragement to put their words to paper. Join us for our first meeting! Drop in.

Mayerthorpe Photography Club Meeting

Thursday, October 11, 7pm

This group tell photography tales, talk about the latest gear and plan adventures. Special guest, Brenda Lakeman, photographer for T8N Magazine will be joining us for this meeting. Drop in and join the fun!

Be a Genie

Wednesdays, 9 - 12pm

This kind of Genie does not grant lottery winning wishes but they do uncover secrets and fascinating information! The Mayerthorpe Genies meet each week for genealogy research . . . and coffee! The group share research tips, sites to search for information, watch webinars and plan the occasional field trip. Everyone welcome. Drop in.

The Basement Bookers

Thursday, October 25, 7pm

We call it a book club, but it's really just a good time! Plan to drop in and discuss our latest club pick, The Book Thief by Markus Zusak. If you would like to borrow a copy, we can hook you up!

Mother Goose

Tuesdays in October, 10:30am - 12pm

Have a squealing good time at this Parent Link program for children ages 0-6! Share friendship, fun, rhymes, stories and songs. Provided in partnership with Mayerthorpe Parent Link & FCSS. Snack provided.

Coffee & Coloring for Adults

Monday, October 29, 10:30am - 12pm

Who says coloring is just for kids? Grown ups invited to enjoy coffee, conversations and crayons. Drop in.

The Memoir Writers

Wednesday, Oct 3, 10 & 24, 1 - 3pm

Write the story of a life. This non-fiction writing group meet to coach and encourage new members and each other to write stories involving their own lives and those of people special to them. Drop in.

Please note that on Oct 3 & 24 this group will meet at the Library and on Oct 10 the meeting will be held in the Community Room at the Pleasantview Lodge.

Movies@MPL: Ant-Man and the Wasp

Friday, October 19, 7pm

It's really hard to be a superhero and a dad! Scott Lang is dealing with the consequences of doing both while on an urgent mission with the Wasp. This delightful movie from Marvel is rated PG-13. Remember . . . you don't have to hide your snacks to bring them into our theater and the popcorn is always free!

The Library is closed on Monday, Oct 8 for Thanksgiving. Happy Holidays Everyone!
